What's New

5 Stingers make soccer all-star teams

Four members of the Concordia men's team and one member of the women's squad were named to the Quebec Student Sports Federation 1997 soccer all-star teams.

Stinger mid-fielder Scott Patterson and defender Ari Angelopoulos were named to the first all-star team, while forward Marc Cesari and mid-fielder Anthony Primiani were named to the second all-star team. On the women's side, mid-fielder Tania Morsani was named to the second all-star team.

Football team heads to Ottawa for semifinals

Head coach Pat Sheahan will pack up his team and head down the road to the nation's capital for a semifinal game versus the defending O-QIFC champion Ottawa Gee-Gees on Saturday at 12:30 p.m. at Frank Clair Stadium.

The Stingers finished the regular season with a 5-3 win-loss record, which was good for third place. The McGill Redmen finished in fourth place and will travel to Kingston, Ont., to play the first-place Queen's Golden Gaels.

The winners will advance to the conference championship to be played Saturday, Nov. 8.
